

Terex Part

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts stands by their goal to deliver a reliable and cost effective product line. They take pride in manufacturing equipment that improves their customers' earnings. Through many divestures and acquisitions designed to expand the product offering, Terex has of late expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to enable them to deliver quality standards and value for their broad client base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the industrialized equipment sector, Terex is building a franchise under the Terex brand name. The business is incorporating their earlier brand names for many of their components in conjunction operations the Terex brand name for a smooth transition process. Currently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. A number of of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has shown steady evolution, acquiring PPM Cranes, in 1995 while divesting Clark Material Handling in 1995. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Buying O&K Mining and Payhauler in 1998, allowed Terex to grow their mining business. The same year their crane offering expanded their operations radically with the acquisitions of Gru Comedil, TerexLift, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They soon became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by purchasing Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane suppliers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment industry, acquiring Fermac who is a producer specializing in tractor loader backhoes. Their Light Construction operations continued to expand operations with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

Terex added to its Roadbuilding division in 2001, operations with the acquisitions of Bid-well, Load King, CMI, Jaques and Atlas.

A couple of of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to develop into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped thrust Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane industry. Acquiring German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a principal manufacturer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed business with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which offered company-owned distribution for Terex Utilities.

Tatra, a maker of heavy-duty lift trucks intended for on and off-road industrial and military functions were purchased in 2003. Acquiring Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a manufacturer of surface drilling technologies for use within the construction, utility and mining markets. Noble CE, which was known as Terex Mexico was also purchased this year. They manufacture high capacity surface mining trucks and also fabricate several parts for other Terex companies.
